PRESS RELEASE
February 10, 2020

Town Administrator Gregory Enos is pleased to announce that Erin Barry has been appointed as Avon's new Town Accountant.

Barry has over six years of municipal experience and most recently served as the Assistant Treasurer-Collector for the Town of Abington. She has an accomplished background in municipal finance having completed a number of accounting and financing programs along with her master's degree in accounting.

"We are thrilled to welcome Erin to her new role with the Town of Avon," Town Administrator Enos said. "Her expertise and experience in the municipal finance field will be an asset to our town and we wish her much success."

Barry began in her new role on Wednesday, January 22, 2020. She replaces former Town Accountant Kimberly Park who was with the town for just over two years prior to moving to Florida.
