

ALTERNATIVE DROP - OFF LOCATIONS

Sometimes a resident has hard-to-dispose of materials (such as from household construction projects) or has Household Hazardous Waste that can't wait to be disposed of on the regularly scheduled HHW day). The contacts below may be able to help.

HOUSEHOLD HAZARDOUS WASTE:

Clean Harbors, 1 Hills Ave, Braintree, MA, Tel: (877) 333-4244
Rate: $2.50 per pound, Hours are Saturday only 8 am - noon

BUILDING AND CONSTRUCTION MATERIALS:

American Re-Fuel, Braintree Transfer Station

257 Ivory Street, Braintree, MA, Tel.: (781) 848-1219. Hours for all non-Braintree residents: Monday-Saturday, 7 am-noon.

Rates: $100 minimum charge for 0-1600 lbs; over 1600 lbs pro-rated at $135 ton on per load basis. Only payment by credit card accepted. No cash or checks.

Conigliaro Industries (for vinyl siding)

Framingham, MA, Tel.: (508) 872-9668, Call for rates

T.L.Edwards

Avon, MA, Tel: (508) 580-5356

Building Materials Resource Center (accepts building materials in good condition which can be reused)

100 Terrace Street, Boston, MA, Tel.: (617) 442-8917, www.bostonbmrc.org

Boston Restore, Inc. (accepts building materials and office supplies in good condition)

10 Harvard Street, Dorchester, MA, www.bostonrestore.org

COMPUTERS/ELECTRONICS:

CRT Recycling Inc

175 E Ashland Street

Brockton, MA 02302

(508) 427-7740 <http://www.crr.org/>

Department of Environmental Protection, Electronic Recycling Info:

<http://www.mass.gov/eea/agencies/massdep/recycle/reduce/electronics-recycling.html>

FURNITURE, APPLIANCES:

Society of St. Vincent de Paul, 18 Canton St, Stoughton, MA, Tel.: (800) 675-2882

or visit their webpage at: <http://www.svdpboston.com/store.php>

This organization will pick up three large items from your home such as furniture and appliances if the following conditions are met: furniture is clean, usable and in good repair (this means no rips, stains, scratches, broken legs, etc.). Refrigerators, washers, and electric dryers must be less than 5 years old and in working condition. (They do not accept stoves.)

There is a minimum of three pieces for pick-up.

Massachusetts Coalition for the Homeless Furniture Bank, 15 Bubier St., Lynn, MA

Tel.: (781) 595-7570 or visit their website at www.mahomeless.org

Items that are needed the most are dressers, kitchen table and chairs, household items, pots and pans, cribs and car seats. Appliances and office furniture are not accepted. The Furniture Bank can arrange for a free pick up of your items. Household furniture must be in good condition. www.mahomeless.org

YARD WASTE:

Maltby & Co., 30 Old Page Street Rear, North Stoughton, MA, Tel.: (800) 660-6572, or visit their webpage at: www.Maltbytree.com

Hours: M-F 7:00-4p.m.

Materials Accepted: Brush/logs/Wood - must be loose, not bundled, without nails $5 per c.y. cost may vary depending on truck size ($5-$20)

LEAVES - must be loose not in bags. LEAF COLLECTIONS END MID- DECEMBER.

CALL FOR RATES. (800) 660-6572

GENERAL PICKUPS:

1-800-Got-Junk: (800) 408-5865

D&G Movers: 781-571-9002